Dear Applicant:

Effective September 30, 1996, Title 18, United States Code, Section 922 (g)(9) makes it illegal for anyone who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to possess any firearm or ammunition. This provision applies to persons convicted at any time prior to or after the passage of the September 30, 1996 law. There is no exemption for law enforcement officers and agents.

“Misdemeanor crime of domestic violence” is generally defined as any offense whether or not explicitly described in a statute as a crime of domestic violence – which has its factual basis, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of deadly weapon, committed by the victim’s current or former domestic partner, parent, or guardian. “Convicted” is generally defined in the statute as excluding anyone whose conviction has been expunged or been set aside or has received a pardon.

Since deputy sheriffs require a firearm for the performance of their duties, it is clear that this law applies to all deputy sheriffs or applicants for deputy sheriff who have ever been convicted of such misdemeanors. These requirements are the result of an act of Congress and there is no discretion in this matter. The requirements in this statute cannot be waived or extended other than by a new act of Congress.

To allow the Montgomery County Sheriff’s Office to comply with this law, it is necessary for you to indicate below whether or not you have been convicted of such a crime as described above. A Criminal history will be obtained to support both positive and negative responses. It is our intention to comply with the law and support compliance with the proper documentation to protect you the applicant, as well as the Sheriff’s Office.

I _____,
(Signature)

Applicant of the Montgomery County Sheriff’s Office have read the attached memo concerning Title 18, United States Code Section 922 (g)(9) and understand both its meaning and its consequences.

- I have been convicted of such a crime
- I have not been convicted of such a crime
